A Stroke of Genius for Your Business

“Within three days after posting, I had our first major inquiry from a new client who found us through a web search. Since then, I’ve received multiple compliments from clients on how useful the catalog is to them. iQ works.”

Joel R. Rollins, CTS-R
General Manager
Everett Hall Associates, Inc.

“The iQ catalog has created an awakening for our company. In the first four months of use, we had received nearly 20 information requests and enough rentals to pay for the whole year’s service. The big surprise was that each one of the requests came from companies within 50 miles of our office that had never heard of us.”

Don Guzauckas, Jr.
General Manager
HB Group, Inc.

More new business opportunities for your company!

InfoComm iQ® has created the most comprehensive AV services resource finder ever. InfoComm iQ markets our industry through a very aggressive pay-per-click campaign with all the major search engines. This investment results in hundreds of business opportunities each month. Be sure your company is getting its fair share of those opportunities by listing your company in the appropriate category of the AV Services Providers Directory.

Ad listing options:

International Listing — Diversify your market and advertise with an international listing. For only $3,000/year, you can expand globally!

National Listing — Promote yourself across the nation! Purchase a national listing and receive 5 regional listings for free! $2,500/year. All national Listings are displayed randomly each time a new search is conducted.

Regional Listing — Promote yourself locally by ZIP/postal code for $250/year. Your regional Listing will be displayed in sequence by distance from the ZIP/postal code entered if your selected ZIP/postal code is among the five closest providers within 150 miles.

Use iQ Catalog tools to create and publish an integrated catalog, a rental catalog and/or a staging services catalog easily, quickly, and efficiently into a categorized catalog environment exclusively for use on your website to promote your company’s unique capabilities.
