

iQ for Trade Publications

iQ provides complete product catalogs, including our our exclusive "Find Provider" functionality at no cost to many sites as part of our industry marketing strategy to expose the Pro AV industry, the products and the providers via the web. These catalogs are used by 10's of 1000's of visitors each month and, in addition to our very successful SEO efforts, contribute to the many new business opportunities created each month by the iQ program.
