

TAMPA, Fla. -- InfoComm International hosted its third Regional Roundtable program of 2008 on March 13 in Tampa. Eighteen members from Florida were on hand for this increasingly popular member event.

Attendees had the opportunity to discuss current issues facing them in the industry, including the need to bring new people into the AV workforce and how InfoComm and its educational programs can help. Workforce development was also an important topic of discussion.

Download a copy of the  given at the Tampa Roundtable.

This event was sponsored by Liberty Wire and Cable. A full schedule of InfoComm regional events is available in our Calendar of Courses & Events. InfoComm Regional Roundtables are free to participants.

InfoComm is grateful to our member sponsor:

Copyright 2011 InfoComm International